No more chapped cheeks
Weleda's gorgeous Calendula Weather Protection Cream is made with almond oil and beeswax. It smells delicious and also contains extract of calendula, famed for its skin-healing and soothing properties. Suitable from birth.

£3.95 for 30ml. From independent pharmacies and health stores or mail order on 0115 9448222. www.weleda.co.uk

Too hot... too cold

With heating going on and off, it is difficult to keep a constant temperature. The Combi Sleeper is unique, being two sleeping bags in one, a cotton 1.5 tog outer covering and a cotton 1.0 tog fleece liner that can be used together or separately. It also has removable sleeves, making it really versatile.

£57.50 from Little Company

Still in its infancy, www.nappyvalley.co.uk offers a trading site for quality second-hand baby and children's products. The site encourages the trading of premium brands like Bugaboo, Stokke, Phil & Ted's etc. The site is free to browse and it is £2 to place an ad. As the name suggests, the site is very south London biased at the moment but it may be worth travelling for a bargain.
